Orwigsburg, PA, March 18, 2011: Access Services in Orwigsburg presented Schaeffer's Harley-Davidson with the nonprofit agency's John Fox, Jr. Award on Friday, March 18, 2011. The John Fox, Jr. Award is given to the person or organization that has made an outstanding contribution to the quality of life of the people served by Access Services.

Schaeffer's Harley-Davidson received the Agency's highest honor in part for their donation of hundreds of toys over the past five years in support of Access Services' "Christmas in July Toy Run." "Schaeffer's Harley-Davidson exemplifies the meaning of giving," stated Sheila Davison, Regional Director for Access Services. The family-run business was also recognized for its work in raising over $2.5 million during the past 24 years for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. In 2009, Schaeffer's Harley-Davidson hosted a ride to raise awareness of child abuse with their first Kaitlyn Stinnet Child Abuse Awareness Ride which became a nationwide annual event.
