

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Sheila Davison
1-800-200-7701

For Immediate Release
Date: April 5, 2006

ACCESS SERVICES IS EGG'N IT ON. . .

Access Services Orwigsburg will be guests on Joe Snedecker's morning weather show tomorrow, April 7th, 2006. Catch the egg'n action on WNEP, Channel 16 starting at 6:00 a.m.

Friday evening, April 7, 2006 is when Access Services will host their third annual renowned "EGGSTRAVAGANZA" charity fundraiser event. This is the area's premiere adult egg hunt claimed by some to one of the largest with the best in prizes in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

This year's after-dark adult egg hunt will feature live entertainment provided by "The Party Dolls". There is $8,000 worth of diamond jewelry in the event with a total of close to $40,000 in event prizes and auction items. At least 1 piece of diamond jewelry valued at $1,000 will be in an egg prize with over 400 egg prizes valued at $8,500. There are 20 door prizes valued at $3,300 and at least 30 items will be in the silent auction that includes luxury, vacation, sporting events, diamond jewelry from Littman Jewelers, Corporate golf memberships from Villas Crossing, appliances, tools and home items.

Tickets are still available - in advance $20 til Friday (4/7) and at door $25. Please call 366-1154 for a ticket location near you or visit the web site www.accessservices.org.

The event will be held at the Lakeside Ballroom in Barnesville from 7:00 pm until midnight (doors open at 6:00 pm). Guests will enjoy a hot buffet along with a cash bar. Adults 21 and over are welcome to join in the egg hunt with flashlights that will begin around 8:30 pm. Proceeds from the benefit will help support Access Services' work in the local community.

#