ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP EXPO

The Montgomery County Association for Excellence in Service (MAX) is pleased to sponsor, in cooperation with Representative Kate Harper, an "ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP EXPO" on Friday, April 21, 2006 at the Church on the Mall in the Plymouth Meeting Mall, next to the Food Court. The expo will run from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm. Come meet State & County elected officials between 12:00 and 1:00 pm. There will be free health screenings and free workshops on public safety, aging, Alzheimer's, government services, housing options, , transportation, and much, much more! Many local service organizations will have informational displays set up. Voter's education and registration, OVR, Montgomery County Community College, Health Dept. Screening, Offices of Aging, Mental Health, Mental Retardation, Drug and Alcohol are just some of the participants in the expo. Representative Kate Harper will be presenting a workshop on "What your State Rep can do for you" (from 11:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.). For more information contact MAX by email at maxassociation@aol.com.

The MAX Association is comprised of 42 agencies throughout Montgomery County. These agencies collaborate to assist each other in providing services and to increase efficiency and effectiveness through communication, coordination, and education among members, county officials, legislators and customers.
