About the Program

The Justice Related Services program provides a mobile, person-centered approach to supporting individuals diagnosed with a Severe Mental Illness in jail diversion and successful re-entry into the community post incarceration. Navigating this process can be both exciting and overwhelming, but our case managers are here to support!

What We Provide

Do you need support in any of these areas?

- Partnering with community providers to help with successful reintegration into the community and to identify steps to minimize re-incarceration
- Identifying housing resources
- Maintaining housing stability
- Transportation
- Employment opportunities
- Education resources
- Establishing connections to the community and system supports
- Connection to local treatment providers

Our Goals

Jail diversion

Providing support while incarcerated

Successful reentry into the community
